

DECREASED FARM PRODUCTION WILL SHOVE PRICES UP

Answers to Questionnaires Show Farmers Are Growing Restless.

TIRED OF LONG HOURS AND LOW RETURN FOR LABOR

Say Difference Too Great Between Farm Price and Consumer's Cost

Washington, Jan. 30.—Decreased farm production next year and a consequent increase in the cost of living, due to dissatisfaction of farmers, was predicted today by the senate postoffice committee today by James R. Blakeslee, fourth assistant postmaster general. More than 40,000 answers to 200,000 questionnaires sent to farmers, he said, indicate a condition "disquieting and portentous of disastrous consequences." A report submitted to the committee by George L. Wood, superintendent of the division of rural mails, was read by Mr. Blakeslee. Declaring that "the farmers were tired of long hours and low return for labor, hard periods of toil while city dwellers lived in ease and comfort with high wages and short hours," the report said that the replies received indicated that hundreds of farmers had resolved either to quit the farm entirely or to greatly decrease production.

Complaint was made in a majority of the replies, the report said, of the high prices paid by consumers as compared with the low return to the farmer, indicating an entirely disproportionate split for the middleman.

Many farmers, the report said, drew comparisons between "the hours of labor required of the farmer and his compensation with those of the urbanite with which the farmer bitterly complains, setting forth the soft and luxurious living of the latter as compared with the hard and bare living of the farmer who is no longer willing to toil and produce for the striker, the profiteer and the short hours, high wage man."

Inability to obtain farm labor was another complaint of the farmers. Declaring that the shortage of farm labor was "causing great antagonism on the part of the producer toward the city dweller," the report said that the great demand for labor by the city, high wages and short hours, is driving the farm hired help and the farmers' boys and girls to the city.

The high cost of wearing apparel, of staples not produced on the farm, of farm implements and fertilizers all of which seem to have filled the farmers' mind with discouragement and resentment, is certain to result in the curtailment of food production," the report said.

Declaring that the letters received from 40,000 farmers, with hundreds of others arriving daily, contained "alarming information that the country ought to know," the report said that the replies "disclose such a state of mind and feeling on the part of the many producers and such a spirit of antagonism toward their fellow cause for dwell in the cities, as to give cause for grave apprehension."

SURPRISED AT WAGE INCREASE.

Youngstown, Jan. 30.—Officials of independent steel companies here would make no definite statement today concerning their course in regard to the wage increase granted by the United States Steel corporation. They said the announcement was a surprise to them and that until it is officially confirmed they will take no action.

CLUB WOMEN

DECLINE HONOR

Members of Federation Decline to Accept Responsibilities of Leadership—Action Postponed One Month.

After taking several ballots for the election of officers at the annual meeting of the City Federation of Women's club the meeting yesterday afternoon was postponed for a month.

A number of women were selected for president, but declined to accept the nomination.

The interest in club work seemingly has lapsed during the past several months. Several suggestions were made yesterday relative to a reorganization of the club endeavor in the city.

AUTO THEFT INSURANCE

WILL COST MORE MONEY

New York, Jan. 30.—Sharp increases in premiums paid by automobile owners for insurance against theft and accident are to be announced shortly by the eastern conference of the National Automobile Underwriters. It was stated today in insurance circles. The underwriters were said to be wavering between an increase of 40 per cent and one of 50 per cent.

Automobile insurance men declare that thefts and accidents have more than doubled within the last few years and that only a generous increase of rates can save them from being forced out of business. Owners of automobiles are blamed in part for the increase, the association being made that car owners who carry insurance "sit back and let the insurance companies do the worrying about accidents and thefts."

WILL HAVE TWO MONTHS LOW FARE

Repeal of Two-Cent Fare Law Will Become Effective About May 1; Old Rate After March 1.

Columbus, Jan. 30.—If you have any railroad traveling to do, put it off till March 1, and then do it all between that date and May 1.

This advice was being given last night by legislators to their friends after the senate had passed the Pearson bill, repealing the two-cent fare law and fixing the maximum rate at three cents. The bill had passed the house and now is ready for presentation to Governor Cox.

Because it was not passed as an emergency, the bill will not become effective until about May 1. Government control of the roads ends March 1. During the two months' interim, the railroads will be governed by the present law, which fixes the maximum rate at two cents per mile and cannot charge in excess of that amount. Automatically, on March 1, the fare on steam roads in Ohio, thus will revert to two cents and remain at that rate until the Pearson law becomes effective.

The railroads did not ask that the bill be passed as an emergency measure in order to permit them to continue to charge the three-cent fare after March 1. They say they are willing to forego the two-cent fare for two months in order to get the increase. They also say it will take approximately 60 days to prepare new rate schedules to be filed with the state public utilities commission under the Pearson law.

"I believe that industry and an interest in affairs generally promotes long life."

BURGLARS GET

LIBERTY BONDS

Enter Pataskala Home and Get Loot Valued at $3065—Use Jimmy on Window

Police Chief Jas. Sheridan was notified last evening that the home of Philip Esswine, at Pataskala, was entered by burglars during the absence of the family yesterday afternoon, and $3,000 worth of Liberty bonds, $50 in money and $15 worth of war savings stamps were stolen from a strong box, kept in Esswine's desk. Entrance was effected by jimmying a window and after the robbery was discovered nearby cities were called upon and notified, but no clue to the caller there had been no clue. It is said a couple of suspicious young men were seen in the village a noon yesterday, but they left, driving towards Newark in a Ford car.

NEGOTIATIONS ON COMPROMISE ARE TO BE CONTINUED

Absence of Senator Hitchcock Will Delay Discussion of Article 10.

OTHER PROBLEMS ARE CONSIDERED BY SENATOR

Bi-Partisan Committee To Take Up Treaty Questions.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Likelihood of an immediate break in the peace treaty compromise negotiations apparently diminished today as the unofficial bi-partisan conciliation committee of senators prepared to resume deliberations. Leaders indicated that at today's session, which was expected to last until late in the afternoon, only collateral issues of the reservation controversy would be taken up, and that any decision on the troublesome question of Article X would be postponed until next week. It was an apparent impasse on this article and the Monroe Doctrine that had threatened to bring the negotiations to final collapse.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the Democratic leader and a member of the committee will leave tonight for Omaha to be absent for nearly a week, and the general expectation was that in his absence there would be no important discussion. The results of the developments, many senators predicted would be to prolong considerably the life of the negotiators and give opportunity for extended private discussion among those of both parties who are working for a compromise.

THEATRICAL MEN FEAR

ATTACK OF REFORMERS

New York, Jan. 30.—Concern lest the theater be next attacked by "prohibition" reformers is expressed in the current number of Equity, the official organ of the actors' union, which is circulated here today.

"The hectic spirit 'reform' is in the air," says the publication. "The lottery evil had to go; horse racing faces the prospect of being completely proscribed, dancing in public places has been interfered with as a reputed evil; the 'evil of smoking' is being made much of, and the theater must be prepared to sing out as the next on the list of 'social excesses' to be attacked."

U. S. CAN'T HELP

FINANCE EUROPE

Secretary Glass Tells Chamber of Commerce Men That Further Loans by Government Are Impossible.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Europe in so far as the United States government is concerned, must rely upon her own resources in relieving financial equilibrium. This was the interpretation here generally of the letter Secretary of the Treasury Glass has sent to a committee of the chamber of commerce of the United States, which sought a government expression on the proposed international conference of financiers and commercial leaders to discuss reconstruction problems.

In a statement of the facts as he sees them, Mr. Glass declared "the American government has done all that it believes advisable and practicable to aid Europe." The conference, he added, would serve "to completely revive hopes, doomed to disappointment, of further government loans."

The treasury department does not offer objection, Mr. Glass said, if the chamber of commerce of the United States, which has charge of the details of the conference wishes to name delegates to an informal conference, "provided the scope and character and limitations of such a conference are within the limits of the United States government action, are clearly understood."

"If the people and governments of Europe," Mr. Glass declared, "live within their incomes, increase their production as much as possible and limit their imports to actual necessities, foreign credits to cover adverse balances will most probably be supplied by private investors and the demand to resort to such impracticable methods as government loans and bank credits would cease."

Since the signing of the armistice, Mr. Glass pointed out, the treasury has made direct advances of $2,500,000,000 to the allied governments and in addition has made available $736,451,000 to those governments through the purchase of their currencies in covering "United States expenditures in Europe. Besides the United States has sold on credit approximately $825,000,000 in supplies and has extended approximately $100,000,000 in relief as well as allowing to accrue $324,211,000 in unpaid interest on loans.

S., not having ratified the treaty, did not officially participate in the meeting.

BANDIT EXECUTED

IDENTITY IS MYSTERY

Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 30.—The body of Gordon Fawcett Hamby, notorious murderer and bandit who was electrocuted in Sing Sing prison last night for the murder of two officials of a Brooklyn savings bank in December 1918, will be buried in a local cemetery today. No one claimed the body and the mystery surrounding his parentage which he had studiously guarded, remained unsolved.

An autopsy disclosed that the brain of the youthful criminal was "normal" and well developed. Hamby maintained his composure to the last, smiling as he was strapped to the chair and making a brief oral statement to the warden and witnesses just before life was snuffed out.

As he left the death-house he called out to his companions: "Good bye fellows, I always like to try everything once." The murderer gave three letters to the warden, asked him to mail them and keep the addresses secret.

SEEK TO IMPROVE

CANNING METHODS

National Association Takes Action to Assure Purity of Product and to Hunt Improved Processes.

Cleveland, Jan. 30.—Following decisive action to increase the nation's food supply through cooperation with the farmers, to apply to the canning industry an inspection system to insure the purity and wholesomeness of canned foods and to carry forward intensive scientific research to reveal improved canning processes, the National Canners' association closed its annual convention here today. The national canner association president declared that the canning industry supplies association held joint conventions with the canners.

Representatives of the leading firms in the American canning industry agreed to commit themselves to a self-imposed sanitary inspection system, to be controlled from the National Canners' association's headquarters at Washington.

This inspection is certain to protect the family table from canned food products below standard, for it is more rigid than any ever provided by state or national laws. W. J. Sears, chairman, association president, declared that the canners stand ready to join any movement to help remedy the present situation of food shortage and high prices. Frank Gorrell, secretary of the National Canners' association said, "The canning industry is a bureau of business and industry join in concerted action to this end."

CANTON MAN IS

FOUND SHORT IN FUND ACCOUNTS

State Bureau of Accounting Says Secretary's Books Are Irregular and That $4,057 Deficit Exists.

Columbus, Jan. 30.—In a report made public today by the state bureau of accounting, M. E. Evans, of Canton, treasurer of the board of trustees of the Springfield Lake Sanatorium at Akron is found to have an apparent deficit in his accounts amounting to $4,057.19.

The counties supporting the hospital, which is maintained for care of tuberculous patients, are Mahoning, Summit, Stark, Portage and Columbiana. Summit county has undertaken to purchase interest of the other counties in the hospital and maintain the hospital for Summit county alone.

According to information received by state examiners, Evans opposed the proposed sale. Evans lives at Canton and conducted his business as treasurer of the hospital fund at Canton. The apparent deficit of over $4,000 in the accounts, Evans says, is offset by counter claims which he has against the fund of $5041.63 for expenses.

Carl M. Bowman, state examiner, in his report, says these expenses will not be allowed because of great irregularity and illegality as to their payments. The expenses which include stamps, telephone, automobile hire, traveling, etc., Bowman says should have been formally approved by the trustees.

Evans kept funds of the hospital in his personal account at Canton, according to the report. The apparent discrepancy is severely criticized by the state examiner.

3 HEALTH DEPT.

OFFICIALS SUE

Action Is Brought Against City For Back Salary Totalling $1035—Hear Second Case Monday.

The case of Sanitary Policeman Jesse Baldwin was heard before Municipal Judge F. A. Bolton today and the Baldwin brought suit against the city to recover $330 which he alleges is due him for three months services.

A similar case has been brought by Health Officer Dr. W. H. Knauer who seeks to recover $375 for back salary, and which will be heard by Judge Bolton next Monday. Council by ordinance would abolish the present board of health, its locality depending on an opinion by the attorney general as to whether it is still in existence. In the meantime the salaries of the officials of the board are being paid and the court will determine whether they shall be paid or not.

Holts G. Mitchell, meat and food inspector for the health board has also brought suit against the city for back salary for the months of October, November and December, amounting to $322. He is represented by Attorney Charles N. Moore, who also represents Samuel Polhemus Birkwin. Health Officer Knauer has retained Attorney Phil H. Smyth. The city is represented by City Solicitor H. C. Ashcraft and Attorney Lewis R. Fitzgibbon.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Rear Admiral Sims, the expert on the navy's unpreparedness, at the time the United States entered the world war will be made a part of the general inquiry the senate and committee is to make into the condition of the nation's defenses during the war. Chairman of the committee, acting on the written suggestion of the admiral, has asked Secretary Daniels to furnish full information as to the condition of the navy just preceding the declaration of war.

FARM FEDERATION WILL RIVAL LABOR BODY IN STRENGTH

Agriculturalists Plan To Organize Vast Unified Body.

CAMPAGN WILL START AT ONCE IN 10 COUNTIES

Should Be Strong Enough To Go Before Solons and Demand Rights.

Columbus, Jan. 30.—Capital farmers have been organized and the Ohio Farm Federation proposes an organization which will rival both organized labor and organized capital in strength and influence. "The organized farmer" is a phrase which must be reckoned with in Ohio from now on, according to farm leaders who have been active in urging organization at the eighth annual farmers' week at Ohio State university.

Plans for a state campaign, for organization have been laid by the executive board of the Ohio Farm Federation, an association which has as its objective the uniting of every farmer in the state. It is to be an exclusive, gathering the dairyman's organizations, wool growers, vegetable growers and all other farm organizations into one vast unified body, it is stated.

The campaign will be started at once in 10 counties. After these are organized membership or organization campaigns will be launched in the other counties. State and county boards are expected to cooperate in this movement.

Organization has been preached before every association which held annual meetings in the past week. In addressing the Ohio Dairyman's Association, H. W. Ingersoll of Ellyria told the farmers that the farmers, like capital and labor, must organize. Dairyman should have an organization so strong that it will be able to go before state legislatures and congress and demand their rights, he asserted. "They should be able to handle the collective bargaining passed or retire its opponents."

The eighth annual farmers' week will end this evening. The important evening of the closing day will be the awarding of prizes to the members of the 100 Bushel Corn Club, awarding prizes to winners in boys and girls work and meetings of the Ohio County Breeders' association, Ohio State Cheese association, Ohio Rural Life association, Ohio 100 Bushel Corn Club, Ohio State Beekeepers association and the conference of boys and girls workers.

AMERICAN LEGION

IN NIGHT

Membership Drive Team Captain and Men Into Lodge and Rooms Thursday Night

A night raid, conducted by American Legion members last, brought members practically all the lodges, swimming pool rooms and other gathering places for men.

It was a friendly raid, conducted on the basis of the Legion membership drive. The raiders carried the idea of picking off war veterans during their hours of recreation, the "raid" on the downtown lodge club rooms. A large number of men were won over to the Legion by the generous captain and his workers.

Impetus was added to the work of teams by the announcement that a worker had secured 23 members in one night. Other workers were urged on to renewed efforts by the announcement.

Desire to partake of the fine food to be served legion members, at the cost of the eight losing teams, also put "teams" on their toes.

Team captains were to make their first official report at a meeting to be held today. One of the teams had a good record in its canvass of a final night where ex-service men were signed up.

Communication with Buffalo by telephone serves to corroborate the information. It was said that men started for Cleveland yesterday. Russo to catch a studio.

New York, Jan. 30.—Prohibition agents have been put on board the steamship Yarmouth to guard against the removal of a cargo of whisky valued at $1,000,000.

SWISS FOLKS EATING YANKEE 'SWISS CHEESE'

Columbus, Jan. 30.—Switzerland, long the home of the famous Swiss cheese, is now eating Swiss cheese made in America. This surprising information was brought to Ohio farmers attending farmer's week at Ohio State university by A. C. Weimar, cheese specialist at the United States government cheese factory at Grove City, Pa., who spoke to them today.

"The propaganda which has been spread in this country that America could not produce the high grade of cheese that is produced by Switzerland is answered now by our exporting Swiss cheese to the very same countries from which we imported only a few years ago," he said. "This indicates that there must be quality in our goods as well as demand for them."

Unless the road is kept open so that the young man on the farm may hope to start in with his hands and come out at the end of 25 years with a good farm of his own, the best young men will probably seek their fortune in other industries to the detriment of agriculture. H. C. Taylor of the United States department of agriculture warned Ohio farmers in addressing them at the Ohio State University today.

"There is a close relation between the farmer's economic problem and the problem of better living on the farm," said Mr. Taylor.

"It is important that the farmers should have conveniences on the farm providing satisfactory social life in order that the young men may be content to remain permanently in the country. This is needed to overcome the movement from the country to the city which is depleting the farm population at the present time."

CADDOCK AND STETCHER

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY

•TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.

LICKING FARMER GETS CORN GROWERS MEDAL

Columbus, Jan. 30.—Eleven Ohio farmers who raised at least 100 bushels of corn to the acre on plots of more than 10 acres in 1919 were given medals and made members of the Ohio 100 Bushel Corn Club today at Ohio State University. This contest is conducted annually by the university.

C. L. Slack of Pleasant Valley, Muskingum county is the corn champion of the state. He averaged 128.81 bushels to the acre, the highest recorded since the contest was started three years ago. Others who received medals today are: Richard Hedges, Ashville; J. C. Easlerday, Canton; B. H. Puterbaugh, Woodington, Darke county; L. L. Brown, Rainsboro, Highland county; Charles Appel, Lucasville, Scioto county; E. L. Buehler, Stony Creek, Tuscarawas county; A. B. Lewis, Jamestown, Green county; L. A. Demorest, Delaware; William Gilmore, Croton, Licking county; and J. D. Woodburn, Urana.

LONDON CARICATURES

UNCLE SAM AS MEDDLER

London, Jan. 21.—A caricature of "Uncle Sam" with an elongated proboscis, bearing the word "prohibition" is soon to appear on labels pasted on every bottle, keg, cask and barrel of beer, wine or whiskey sold in Great Britain. The labels, five millions of which have been printed, bear this inscription:

"If prohibition wins there will be more beer."

Some dealers objected to this wording on the ground that better class customers might consider it vulgar, so a second label has been printed for use by grocers bearing a sketch of an inverted pyramid designated "prohibition" and the warning:

"Local option is the thin end of the wedge, don't let them drive it home."

OPPOSES SUGGESTION TO ABANDON PARTIES

Niles, Ohio, Jan. 30.—"Abandonment of government through political parties would mean instability," Senator Warren G. Harding, speaking here last night at the McKinley banquet of the Mahoning Valley McKinley Club, said. Senator Harding's address was his first campaign oration since announcement of his candidacy for the presidency. Lauding McKinley as one "who at all times held the welfare of his countrymen to be uppermost," Senator Harding assailed President Wilson for his "obstinacy" in the peace treaty controversy, and reiterated his recent statement that "there must be popular government in America through the agency of political parties."

Other speakers who eulogized McKinley were former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Lieutenant Colonel Ralph D. Cole, of Findlay, and Mayor Fred Warnock, of Youngstown.

LAUNDRY STRIKE AT IRONTON GROWS SERIOUS

Columbus, Jan. 30.—A representative of the governor's office went to Ironton today to investigate alleged disorders in connection with a strike of employees of the Model Laundry there, city officials having appealed to Governor Cox for aid.

The Ironton police force is inadequate to handle the situation arising from the strike which has endured for several weeks, according to the appeal made to the governor by Mayor Thomas Collett, Chief of Police W. E. Mastie and the Model Laundry. They asked for state troops to preserve order.

According to the appeal a crowd of from 200 to 300 officers gathered in the vicinity of the plant daily to harass and heckle workers enroute to and from work.

WOMEN PAY FINES.

Youngstown, Jan. 30.—All of the 27 women indicted by the grand jury here for rioting during the steel strike last fall have pleaded guilty, and the last of them today paid fines of $50 and costs. Nearly a score were charged with throwing pepper into the eyes of deputies and workers while the others were charged with disturbance or riot.

FARMERS WANT TAX PLACED ON INCOMES

Columbus, Jan. 30.—Two major taxation propositions, the classification amendment and the debt limitation proposal, are all that remain unfinished of the legislature's taxation program unless another effort should be made to pass an income tax law.

Final enactment late yesterday of the Gardner bill to permit cities and other taxing districts to levy for sinking fund and interest charges outside the limitations of the Smith 1 per cent law, cleared the slate of a vexatious question which has been bothering legislatures for many years. Both houses accepted the conference committee's report on the bill which provided the referendum feature as against the senate's original stand that the excess levies be made by the taxing officials without submission to popular vote.

Both the classification and the debt limitation proposals probably will be taken up next Tuesday when the legislature reconvenes. Rural organizations under the leadership of L. J. Taber, master of the State Grange, contend that the classification proposal providing a 15 mills rate limitation with authority for local taxing districts to exceed the limit by popular vote is unsatisfactory. They want express provision made in the classification resolution for an income tax and incomes from real estate exempted. It is believed, however, that a compromise may be reached and the proposal submitted to the voters at the November election.

WOMAN DELEGATE TO CONVENTION NAMED

Cleveland, Jan. 30.—Mrs. A. B. Pyke, of Lakewood, the first woman named as a delegate to a national political convention was busy today modestly receiving congratulations from men and women with whom she was associated in the long fight for equal suffrage.

"Recognition of women in this way will mean that the women of the country will align themselves with the representative political parties and not attempt to form an independent women's party," Mrs. Pyke declared. "It means much more than that. It means that a better group of men will be induced to seek public office. It is the dawning of the day when our women will share in the determination of national policies and the making of political platforms."

Mrs. Pyke will go to the Democratic national convention in San Francisco as one of the two delegates from the 22nd district of Ohio. Having been endorsed by the Cuyahoga county Democratic committee her election is assured. She has been active in politics in this county for several years.

SOLONS WOULD REPEAL ENFORCEMENT ACT

Columbus, Jan. 30.—Can the legislature repeal an act which is held up by reason of a petition for a referendum on it?

This question will be put up to Secretary of State Smith by reason of the passage of several bills seeking to amend or repeal acts awaiting referendum.

Dry leaders have introduced bills to repeal three prohibition enforcement measures passed last spring and which are held up awaiting submission to a vote of the people next November.

The Reynolds bill granting women the right to participate in presidential primaries recently passed seeks to amend the act passed last spring granting women the right to vote for presidential electors, and which is awaiting referendum.

The "Holophane" team

entered the game of R. Measner and K. Fowler who will be able to play February 19.

The second game last night showed the Burke team out for a battle. The appearance of Graham on the squad helped team work very much, but they fell down when it came to making the final lift tally. The golfists, like the other second division teams, fell victims to the faster squads in the upper strata. Nold's absence from the Wehrle lineup placed Hagner at forward where he ring up five goals. Mayer led the stove men with 10 baskets. Final score—Wehrle 35, Burke 27.

CHIEF OFFICER CLARK'S FRENCH ORPHAN AS OWN

New York, Jan. 29.—George Pierret, a 15-year old French boy who came to America as a stowaway aboard the steamer West Cornifax, was claimed today at Ellis Island by the wife of Lieutenant Howell French of Columbus, Ohio, as her adopted child. She has asked the immigration authorities to reserve their decision to deport him to France.

Lieutenant French, who served with the 112th field signal corps of the 37th division, says he first met the lad at Dijon, France. Learning that the youngster was an orphan, Lieutenant French took him in charge and they were pals up to the time of the Argentine offensive. Afraid that the boy might be murdered in the fighting, the officer sent him back of the lines to school and that was the last he saw of him until Georges arrived in America.

THE NEW WAR CLOUD.

It is only 14 months since the world quit fighting, exhausted with carnage and destruction. Yet already there are threats of new wars, as the Bolsheviks of Russia are reported to be menacing the existence of Poland, also the English domain in India.

For the moment this threat is probably not very serious. The Russian fanatics have all they can do to keep their own people from starving.

Yet the world will have to remember that the Russian regime seeks the overthrow of all existing governments, and will stop at nothing to accomplish its end. The people of Europe are too war weary to make any attack upon this open and avowed enemy. It is probably the wisest policy to let them stew in their own juice of misery for the present. But this does not mean that any recognition should be given to people who carry knives up their sleeves and avow the purpose to use them.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.

The American Newspaper Publishers Association is opposing certain features of the anti-sedition bill now pending before congress. Section 6 of this bill would apparently authorize federal officials to refuse mailing privileges to a newspaper without a hearing, provided the official finds some statement which in his opinion falls within the statute. No review by any magistrate of court is provided.

It is not easy to frame a law in general terms, that will define just where legitimate criticism ends, and preaching of violence begins. A fair minded man could make the distinction in any particular case. But the law might be used by politicians to suppress newspapers that were too aggressive in denunciation of their schemes.

It would seem that no such judgments should be passed by any one man without review. There should be an appeal to some higher authority, capable of interpreting the statute in a broad-minded way.

The country is anxious to suppress appeals to riot and uprisings. But the hazy vaporings of inflated understandings, which might mean a dozen different things, are not always to be taken seriously. Sometimes you only spread and advertise them, by giving them a weight they do not have in other minds. Anyway a man has a right to advocate changes in the government, unless he is inclined to some violation of law.

The Advocate feels that the freedom of the press is a very precious thing. It was won after centuries of struggle with kings and emperors. A country that denied this freedom has just plunged the world into destruction and misery. Vast structures of tyranny and great abuses can be built up where the press is muzzled.

Some of the people who used to sing "The Old Oaken Bucket" with such fervor at the midnight supper parties, never thought they would have to come into such intimate acquaintance with the contents of that bucket as they are now enjoying.

Claimed that pluz hats are coming back. Bank men and society swells will now be scarcely distinguishable from the circus agents and Indian doctors.

The first step in reducing the cost of living is for the investigators to have their pictures printed in the newspapers.

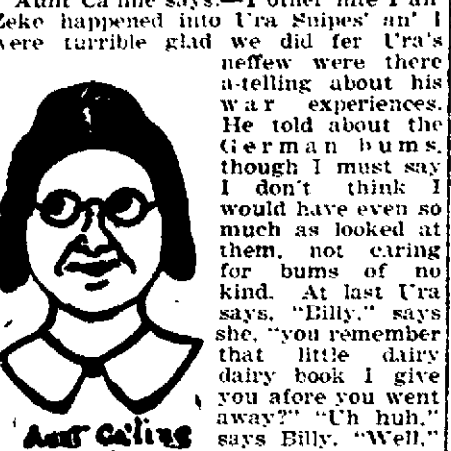

Holland won't give up Kaiser Bill. The thrifty Dutchmen can't spare a good wood sawyer in these times.

MARRIED STRANGERS

For table-talk, I prefer the pleasant and witty before the learned and the grave; in common discourse, the ablest speaker, whether or no there be sincerity in the case, Montaigne.

The Stricken Dear!
There was a young widow of Darien
Who placed a fine tombstone of Parian
At the grave of her mate,
Then she murmured, "Why wait?
There's no time like the present for marryin'."

A Diary Superfluities.
Aunt Caline says: "T'other nite I an Zeke happened into Ura Snipes' and I were terrible glad we did fer Ura's newfangled nite were there a-telling about his war experiences. He told about the German hums, though I must say I don't think I would have even so much as looked at them, not caring for bumps of no kind. At last Ura says, 'Billy,' she says, 'you remember that little diary book I give you afore you went away?' 'Oh, huh,' says Billy, 'Well,' says Ura, 'I ast you to rite in it every thing you seen an' especial your impressions of your first battle,' she says, 'I thought it would be intrusting to read afore the club,' she says. Billy didn't say nothing, so Ura keeps on, 'Well, did you do it?' 'Do what?' says Billy, 'Why rite your impressions of your first battle,' she says, 'No,' he says, 'but what impressed me most, were the shooting, an' by gosh I didn't knerd to rite it down to remember it," he says.

Did You Know
That malachite is essentially a carbonate of copper? It is of a green color and is often found as an incrustation with other ores of copper. It is valuable as an ore of copper and is also classed among the semi-precious stones, many beautiful ornaments being made from it. In 1835 a mass of solid malachite was found in the Ural Mountains, more than seventeen feet in length and weighing about twenty-five tons. Malachite is also found in a crystallized form.

Married Strangers

A powerful story dealing with a problem being worked out in thousands of American homes to-day—that of the husband and wife who find they grow apart while the man goes out to war.

By FRANCES DUVALL

Copyright, 1919, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

LIX.—A Call For Help.

"Betty is coming for the house party next week," announced Anita at luncheon one day, looking up from her perusal of her mail.

Keitha felt a swift pang of regret. She and Bennett had spent many pleasant hours in the garden and on the beach since their arrival. She felt that they were nearer to reaching an understanding than they had been at any time since his return from France. Betty Arnold's coming would renew the old game of cross purposes.

"Here's a letter for you, Keitha," said Mrs. Bennett reaching a plump but graceful arm across the table. "It was confused with my mail, or you would have had it sooner."

Keitha's murmured thanks were broken short with an exclamation of pleasure as she caught sight of the handwriting.

"It's from Marcia," she said. "The friend who came West with us," she explained. "Will you excuse me?"

As she ripped open the envelope, she happened to note Anita's curious glance. Anita never asked the conventional permission when she read her letters at the table.

Keitha flushed as she realized the unconscious rebuke. She was finding it increasingly difficult to preserve the Bennett code without relinquishing her own.

"Your friend certainly uses violent note paper," sniffed Anita. "Especially for a widow. You said she was a widow, didn't you?"

Keitha looked at the letter in her hand perplexedly. It was penned on routing, long blue paper.

"It does seem odd. I never knew Marcia to use any but white or pale grey stationery," she commented.

"Perhaps it's all her husband's family use," suggested Anita. "By the way, who did you say she had married?"

Mindful of the former occasions when the name of Tasker Bland Holmes had been mentioned, Keitha affected not to hear and unfolded the letter.

"Keitha, dear," it ran, "I have tried to write to you before, but it seemed impossible to speak what is in my heart to anyone. Keitha, they are horrible—Tasker's family. I mean, if I am disloyal to the dead, may God forgive me. But I tell myself a thousand times a day that it is impossible—it cannot be—that these people are the nearest kin of the man I loved and married."

"I cannot remain here, feeling as I do. It is against all the laws of hospitality. But aside from that consideration, I could not endure it, purely from a fastidious standpoint."

"I must get away to think. Will you send me a wire calling me away—anywhere—anything for a legitimate excuse for cutting short my visit? I will go somewhere and try to adjust my new-found knowledge to my ideal of my husband. Just now I feel like saying 'Thank God that he is dead, that he died splendidly different and cannot return to these people.'"

There was a postscript which added: "Forgive this horrible note paper. It is all that is at hand and I have no time or opportunity to secure other."

Keitha finished the letter and slipped it back into its violently tinted envelope.

"Will you excuse me?" she asked her mother-in-law. "I have an important telegram to send."

NEED OF PAPER MILLS IS SEEN.
Chicago, Jan. 30.—More mills are necessary to relieve the present world shortage of news print paper and the mills cannot be built in less than two years. W. F. Hinton of Winnepeg, vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, said here today.
There is no lack of pulp wood either in Canada or the United States at present, Mr. Hinton said, but added, great inroads are being made in the forests.
As the trees are cut the source of supply recedes into the north, haulage to the mills becomes greater and expense of manufacture consequently is increased, he pointed out.
"The demand from Europe is tremendous and prices are unprecedented," Mr. Hinton continued. "print paper sold here on the Atlantic seaboard for shipment abroad now sells at $160 a ton."
The present crisis is turning the eyes of capitalists to the spruce forests of British Columbia and to the practically inexhaustible pulpwood supply along the Fraser river.

THE NEW WAR CLOUD.

It is only 14 months since the world quit fighting, exhausted with carnage and destruction. Yet already there are threats of new wars, as the Bolsheviks of Russia are reported to be menacing the existence of Poland, also the English domain in India.
For the moment this threat is probably not very serious. The Russian fanatics have all they can do to keep their own people from starving.
Yet the world will have to remember that the Russian regime seeks the overthrow of all existing governments, and will stop at nothing to accomplish its end. The people of Europe are too war weary to make any attack upon this open and avowed enemy. It is probably the wisest policy to let them stew in their own juice of misery for the present. But this does not mean that any recognition should be given to people who carry knives up their sleeves and await the purpose to use them.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.

The American Newspaper Publishers Association is opposing certain features of the anti-sedition bill now pending before congress. Section 6 of this bill would apparently authorize federal officials to refuse mailing privileges to a newspaper without a hearing, provided the official finds some statement which in his opinion falls within the statute. No review by any magistrate of court is provided.
It is not easy to frame a law in general terms, that will define just where legitimate criticism ends, and preaching of violence begins. A fair minded man could make the distinction in any particular case. But the law might be used by politicians to suppress newspapers that were too aggressive in denunciation of their schemes.
It would seem that no such judgments should be passed by any one man without review. There should be an appeal to some higher authority, capable of interpreting the statute in a broad-minded way.
The country is anxious to suppress appeals to riot and uprisings. But the hazy vaporings of inflamed understandings, which might mean a dozen different things, are not always to be taken seriously. Sometimes you only spread and advertise them, by giving them a weight they do not have in other minds. Anyway a man has a right to advocate changes in the government, unless he is inciting to some violation of law.
The Advocate feels that the freedom of the press is a very precious thing. It was won after centuries of struggle with kings and emperors. A country that denied this freedom has just plunged the world into destruction and misery. Vast structures of tyranny and great abuses can be built up where the press is muzzled.
Some of the people who used to sing "The Old Oaken Bucket" with such fervor at the midnight supper parties, never thought they would have to come into such intimate acquaintance with the contents of that bucket as they are now enjoying.
Claimed that plug hats are coming back. Rank men and society swells will now be scarcely distinguishable from the circus agents and Indian doctors.
The first step in reducing the cost of living is for the investigators to have their pictures printed in the newspapers.
Holland won't give up Kaiser Bill. The thrifty Dutchmen can't spare a good wood sawyer in these times.

DEATH IN THE HOUSE

For table-talk, I prefer the pleasant and witty before the learned and the grave; in common discourse, the ablest speaker, whether or not there be sincerity in the case. Montaigne.

The Stricken Dear!
There was a young widow of Darien
Who placed a fine tombstone of Parian
At the grave of her mate.
Then she murmured, "Why wait?
There's no time like the present for marryin'."

A Diary Superfluous.
Aunt Caline says—"T'other nite I an' Zeke happened into Ura Shippe's an' I were terrible glad we did fer Ura's nephew were there a-telling about his war experiences. He told about the German 'bums' though I must say I don't think I would have even so much as looked at them, not curing for 'bums' of no kind. At last Ura says, 'Billy,' says she, 'you remember that little diary you gave me?' 'Oh, yes,' says Billy, 'I do.' 'Well,' says Ura, 'I ast you to rite in it every thing you seen an' especial your impressions of your first battle,' says she. 'I thought it would be intrusting to read afore the club,' she says. Billy didn't say nothing. Ura keeps on asking, 'Did you do it?' 'Do what?' says Billy. 'Why rite your impressions of your first battle,' she says. 'No,' he says, 'but what impressed me most were the shooting an' by gosh I didn't know to rite it down to remember it,' he says.

Did You Know
That malachite is essentially a carbonate of copper? It is of a green color and is often found as an incrustation with other ores of copper. It is valuable among the semi-precious stones, many beautiful ornaments being made from it. In 1835 a mass of solid malachite was found in the Ural Mountains, more than seventeen feet in length and weighing about twenty-five tons. Malachite is also found in a crystallized form.

Why, How Strange.

He has found out it's his upkeep

His fate as black?
He knows that it's his forwardness
That holds him back.

Direct Consequences, Anyway.

Married Strangers

A powerful story dealing with a problem being worked out in thousands of American homes to-day—that of the husband and wife who find they grow apart while the man was off to war.

By FRANCES DUVAL.

LIX.—A Call For Help.

"Betty is coming for the house party next week," announced Anita at luncheon one day, looking up from her perusal of her mail.
Keitha felt a swift pang of regret. She and Bennett had spent many pleasant hours in the garden and on the porch since their arrival. She felt that they were nearer to reaching an understanding than they had been at any time since his return from France. Betty Arnold's coming would renew the old game of cross purposes.
"Here's a letter for you, Keitha," said Mrs. Bennett reaching a plump, but graceful arm across the table. "I was confused with my mail, or you would have had it sooner."
Keitha murmured thanks were broken short with an exclamation of pleasure, as she caught sight of the handwriting.
"It's from Marcia," she said. "The friend who came West with us," she explained. "Will you excuse me?"
As she ripped open the envelope, she happened to note Anita's curious glance. Anita never asked the conventional permission when she read her letters at the table.
Keitha flushed as she realized the unconscious rebuke. She was finding it increasingly difficult to preserve the Bennett code without relinquishing her own.
"Your friend certainly uses violent note paper," sniffed Anita. "Especially for a widow. You said she was a widow, didn't you?"
Keitha looked at the letter in her hand perplexedly. It was penned on rosy egg blue paper.
It does seem odd, I never knew Marcia to use any but white or pale grey stationery," she commented.

FULLY COVERED BY INSURANCE.

(Ohio State Journal)
The loss was fully covered by insurance. What a comfort it must be to the man who takes a risk, as we all must do every day of our lives in this world of uncertainty, to know that, if apparent disaster overtakes him, he will be in that position. The insurance business has been so extended, systematized and perfected that a man can say at any time, "I am covered." It is a great relief to know that, if all likelihoods suffer in the general collapse of things, yet many carelessly go along from day to day and year to year with inadequate insurance against the risks to which they are peculiarly exposed or are prone at all.
Full insurance on his life, his health and his property is one of the greatest sources open to any man of satisfaction and freedom from worry. And still many neglect until too late their plan duty and their great opportunity. Men are no thoughtless, so careless of their own peace of mind, so neglectful of their sacred obligations, so optimistic, perhaps, as to frequently let the insurance agent come to see and beg them to pay up something which if they too, like the rest of us, go out and buy of their own volition, glad of the chance to do so.

Plume.
The League of Nations will have to settle the dispute between Italy and the Jugos.
Extra says he demands the execution of the terms of London, but that does not up Plume to Italy. Left to themselves the Italians and the new nation will fight for the Adriatic shore, and it will be the first date of the league to compel them to reach an agreement without bloodshed.—Philadelphia Record.
Electric Power Is Great.
Canada believes itself to be the favored nation of the electric age that is just fairly getting under way in its work of displacing the age of steam.
The Winnipeg municipal plant develops 15,000 horse power. The Winnipeg electric railway plant develops 30,000 horse power. Work has been begun on a power plant on the Winnipeg river which is scheduled to develop 160,000 continuous 24-hour horse power, which engineers declare is sufficient to drive all the wheels of the industrial machinery now in operation in the Dominion. Maybe Uncle Sam will have to look out for his laurels in this matter. He has the plant, but it seems hard work to get his nephews interested in the full development of it.—Rochester Democrat-Chronicle.
Pointed Observations
Peace declared in Europe will make a lot of Americans sit up and wonder when peace will be declared in Congress.—Milwaukee Journal.
Everybody is sure that 1920 is going to be a better year than 1919. The conclusion is based on the idea that it can't be worse.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
It seems proper that Congressman Jim Mann should rush to the defense of Lermer Mann has long been famed for the bats in his political belfry.—Rochester Herald.
The plan of the four big brotherhoods to squeeze out the middlemen and reduce the cost of living will be watched with interest by the nation-wide sisterhood of thrifty housewives.—Boston Transcript.
William Hale Thompson, Mayor of Chicago, has telegraphed to every United States Senator his opinion that the peace treaty should be rejected. That ought to help toward ratification some.—Boston Globe.
Secretary Daniels credits Bryan with having laid the foundations for the League of Nations. But this does not give the Nebraskan the right to be an accomplice in its murder.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.
Mr. Gerard is not the strongest candidate for president before the people, perhaps, but he will lose nothing in public esteem by his liberality. He doesn't mind saving that there are other good men available besides him self.—Chattanooga News.
Many a man is too mean to hire a press agent. He would rather blow his own horn.

Can We Conquer Russia by Kindness?

The hand that feeds Russia is liable to be bitten, in the opinion of some skeptical editors who doubt the wisdom of applying to our dealings with Lenine in the apostolic injunction: "If thine enemy hunger, feed him." According to one paragrapher it looks as tho the Allied statesmen thought the policy of "feed the brute" ought to work as well with a hostile nation as it is supposed to do with a balky husband. The Echo de Paris wonders how "we are going to do business with the subjects of Moscow without doing business with Moscow, since by military requisition they can take anything sent into Russia." The New York Times, in taking a dig at Mr. Lloyd George, says that he "having failed to kill the wolf, now offers him a juicy bone." Yet as we study the editorial opinion in this country we find much approval of the new Russian policy. The Newark News calls it "the most sensible and hopeful move that has been made in dealing with the Russian muddle."

Milady's Boudoir

Emotion Wrinkles.

In many women every emotion shows in the face and this needless burning out of vitality naturally wears out the tissues and soon the firm flesh becomes flabby and in a young face, assumes the aspect of age. To merely lament these failings and accept the inevitable is the course of hundreds of women, until they are brought to a realization of their shortsightedness and folly.

Then in their dismay and alarm, they expect miracles to happen with a few massage treatments, after the years of neglect and indifference. It is far worse to trace lines just forming or slight furrows than deep set ones, especially after the first flush of youth has passed.

The thin woman will find that her flesh is more inclined to wrinkles than that of a stout woman, because the flesh of the former is firmer. Where the purse is sufficiently elastic to admit of treatment for a month or six weeks, such treatment will make an excellent foundation for a good smooth skin and with the assistance of expert advice, a woman may continue the treatment in her own home and with her own hands.

As a preliminary to the necessary massage treatment, before they are begun, the skin should be especially prepared for the work. The skin is thoroughly cleansed in warm water and with a good soap. Rinse thoroughly in tepid water and dry. Then, for a moment or two, go over the face with the tips of the fingers in massage movements, to get the circulation moving. A cleansing cream may be substituted in place of the face bath if so desired.

Our Boys and Girls

A prospective mother need not be afraid of any unhappy incident she may meet with so long as her thoughts are directed to the ideal. She should exercise strict cleanliness, taking daily exercise in the open air or well aired rooms, be useful and kindly and see that her food is wholesome. Every day she may look at the blue sky and see that in every care or duty in life, there are means for her to grow stronger and braver for her child's sake.

Even the preparation of the little outfit can have an influence on the little life. If the mother makes the little garments cheerfully and sews love in with every stitch, this is likely to cultivate industry and love in the child. The prospective mother should aim to be what she wishes her child to be. Let not the father think, also, that he has no responsibility in forming the little one's character. By holding his wife, by allying her all, he can afford, or by making some little sacrifice to give her some little luxury she does not expect, he, too, can do much to implant these virtues in their offspring.

Everyday Etiquette

"If a young lady wishes to invite a young gentleman to accompany her to the theater, is it perfectly proper?" asked Mona.

"It would be proper, provided they are to be accompanied by her mother or an older friend, in which case the invitation should be written by the mother or the older friend," said her sister.

TEST NERV-WORTH WITHOUT TAKING ONE CENT OF RISK

That's What J. C. Hizer Did When He Bought the First Bottle.

That's what the reader can do. Nerv-Worth ads say: "Your dollar back if this famous family tonic does not benefit you." Mr. Hizer said:

"Before I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth from you I was in a bad nervous condition. Could not digest or assimilate my food and was becoming weak and very much run down. After eating my heart would flutter and I trembled and I became very much alarmed. For a year I subsisted on soup. Could not eat anything else. Gas formed in my stomach and I would bloat badly and my stomach was sore and painful. Many nights I could not sleep but lay awake all night. Had severe headaches and rheumatic pains in legs and arms. Now after using three bottles of Nerv-Worth I am rid of all the ailments mentioned and am regaining my strength and vigor. The doctors failed to help me in the least. I am thankful that I tried Nerv-Worth as it brought relief right from the start."

Here is a New and Modern Candy Antiseptic Which Helps Purify The Blood

A Modern Means of Eliminating Poisons from Blood

How seldom we think of the food we eat as a possible source of poison. Not quick-acting and deadly like snake bite or arsenic, but slow, subtle and treacherous. The cause of this self-poisoning can quickly and effectively be removed if taken in time by the use of Partola candies.

"The Doctor in Candy Form." Partola, while doing all that any laxative can do, possesses invaluable antiseptic properties which act upon the millions of germs which breed in the intestinal tract and are carried to all parts of the system by the blood. It tends to prevent the breeding of these germs and helps sterilize and disinfect the whole digestive tract.

Partola is a mild, gentle tonic-laxative and internal antiseptic which comes in the form of delicious peppermint candies without the slightest "medicine taste." All good druggists sell Partola candies, and they should be in every American home at all times. Be sure you get the genuine Partola, because this candy is as fast as good or "just the same." In boxes at 25c, 50c and $1.00.

O. S. U. TRAIN WILL SHOW HOME COMFORTS

Rooms of a farm home completely furnished and equipped with modern conveniences are to be taken in a railway train of four coaches over the New York central lines of Ohio during February. The train is conducted in co-operation with the Ohio State university. The purpose of the exhibit is to stimulate the use of more conveniences at rural homes.

Three stops will be made in Licking county, February 3—1:30 to 4:00 p. m. at Hebron; 7 to 9:30 p. m. Granville; February 4—9 to 11:30 a. m. in Johnstown.

The first hour and a half at each stop will be given to demonstrations and the last hour to talks by specialists of the Agricultural College Extension service of the Ohio State university.

During the week of February 4-10 three farmer's institutes will be held in Licking county: February 4-5 Jacktown, February 6-7 at Chatham and February 9-10 at Alexandria. Institutes are drawing good crowds this winter and the interest is keen. Farm Agent L. L. Moulis declares:

Every business has its convention and the members attend. These meetings can be called farmers' conventions where his problems are discussed.

The Licking Jersey Cattle club will attend the Alexandria meeting in a body the last afternoon, February 10.

SAYS BIG PAPERS DO NOT PRACTICE ECONOMY

Washington, Jan. 30.—Voluntary reduction of newspaper consumption by publishers is the primary remedy of the paper shortage, Chairman Colver, of the federal trade commission said yesterday before the house ways and means committee. Publishers of big papers, despite agreements among themselves, have not practiced the economy that is necessary, he added. "The publishers must recognize that they are consuming more than is and can be produced," said Mr. Colver. "The size of papers is hardly a subject of legislation," he continued, urging smaller Sunday editions and the elimination of extra editions.

PE-RU-NA
THE REMEDY FOR EVERYDAY ILLS

“I have used Pe-ru-na for years in cases of colds and catarrh. The results have been good, in fact, more than you claimed. Have also taken Lacupia and can easily say it is one of the best blood purifiers I have ever used.”

Mr. J. F. Arendt

For Catarrh and Catarrhal Conditions

The evidence of one man like Mr. Arendt is more convincing proof to you of the merits of Pe-ru-na than any written words of ours. For fifty years Pe-ru-na has been the standby of the American family for diseases due to catarrhal inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the organs of the body. Thousands, like Mr. Arendt, have proved the effectiveness of Pe-ru-na for coughs, colds, nasal catarrh, stomach, bowel and liver disorders or any disease characterized by a catarrhal condition. If your suffering is the result of a catarrhal disorder try Pe-ru-na. It is a true, tried medicine.

Mary Pickford

Mary Pickford in her third First Nations feature, “Heart O’ Hills,” drew capacity crowds to the Auditorium theater all day yesterday. Miss Pickford in the role of Mavis Hawn shows great versatility as an actress and her audience are with her at every move. “Heart O’ Hills,” adapted from the story by John Fox tells of a Kentucky mountain girl who avenges the death of her father, saves her mother from land sharks, and pleases her sweetheart by marrying him. This is a corking fine cast of principals to visualize the numerous roles, and a production that includes a real airplane that makes an actual flight during the course of the performance, are the attractive features of an announcement from Cohen and Harris in connection with the production of their newest musical play “Going Up,” which had a most remarkable run of nearly two years at the Liberty theater, New York and is announced an engagement at the Auditorium on next Tuesday evening. “Going Up” is a unique musical play

Experimental Marriage. Constance Talmadge’s latest Select Picture, in which she is presented by Lewis J. Selznick, will be seen Monday next at the Auditorium theater. “Experimental Marriage” is the story of Suzanne Ercott, a young and charming widow who accepts the proposal of marriage of Foxcroft Grey, a handsome young lawyer, on the condition that they mutually agree to be bound by the matrimonial ties only during the time elapsing between Friday night, Monday morning arrives and Grey, determined to convince the girl of the folly of her idea, plays a wise game and doesn’t appear anxious that she stay longer in his company. She leaves, a little worried, determined to comeback later and look into things. Dot Harrington has foolishly accepted a dare to visit, after an all-night dance, Charlie Hamilton’s apartments, which are just above Grey’s. Hamilton and Dot now want to leave but can’t evade McCauley, the house-keeper, who allows no strange members of the feminine sex to enter the house. So Charlie and Dot come down the fire-escape and ask Grey to help them. Grey conceives a plan of escape, instructs Dot and Charlie, and leaves for his office. Charlie goes up to engage McCauley in an argument so Dot can get away. Suzanne now returns and finding the girl in Grey’s rooms, is horrified and will accept no explanation from Dot.

Will Rogers Says: “Had to kill a Mexican to get this green suit for ‘Jubilo.’” “Any girl would be good-looking in this picture with all us homely guys.” “You know us movin’ picture actors gotta dress up to the minute. How about these pants? Don’t they fit slick?” “I like to get my dogs under a kitchen table in these scenes. Movin’ picture food is sure regular.” “You can always tell the stars in pictures. They have the center of the screen.” “I ate pie till I nearly bust in ‘Jubilo.’ Then they cut the stunt out of the picture. Some day I’ll get sore and cut this business and go to work.” “If you don’t think I’m all married up, watch me wipe dishes in ‘Jubilo.’” “They can’t give me too much gravy in these eating scenes. I’ll just put some bread in it and slick it all up.” “It’s actors don’t work much, but we sure dress nice.”

in that it has a coherent story, the scenes of which are laid partly on the ground and partly in the air. This ascription may be taken literally in view of the fact that in one of the acts, the hero aloft in a real airship and wins a race in competition with a rival “bird-man.” While this exciting event is liable to stir one’s blood, it is only one of the many exciting features promised in (Continued on Page 10, Col. 2)

FUN FOR WOMEN TO DYE CLOTHES

"Diamond Dyes" Turn Faded,
Old Apparel into New

Don't worry about perfect results. Use "Diamond Dyes," guaranteed to give a new, rich, fadeless color to any fabric, whether it be wool, silk, linen, cotton or mixed goods—dresses, blouses, stockings, skirts, children's coats, feathered draperies, coverings.

The Direction Book with each package tells so plainly how to diamond dye over any color that you can not make a mistake.

To match any material, have druggist show you "Diamond Dyes" Color Card.

HEALTH STRENGTH ENERGY ENDURANCE NUXATED IRON

Being used by over three million people annually as a tonic and blood builder. It will increase the strength of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances. Ask your doctor or druggist.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

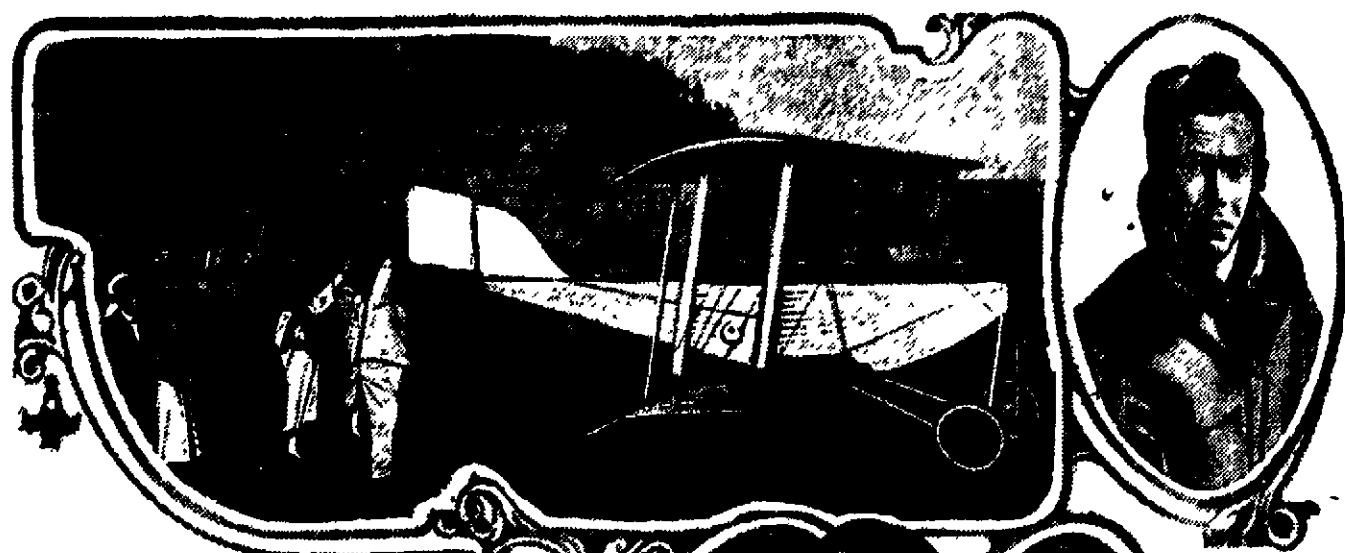

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

"Going Up" is a Sky-scraping Success.

FULL of entrancing melodies, funny situations and pretty girls and presented by a cast of principals of the first class, Cohan & Harris' newest musical novelty, "Going Up," offers a particularly enjoyable evening's entertainment.

George M. Cohan and Sam H. Harris, who never do anything by halves, have been overlavish in expenditure for this particular musical play, the result being one of the most elaborate scenic and costume comedies that has been presented by this firm in several seasons.

As to the musical comedy itself, Otto Harbach and James Montgomery have supplied the book and lyrics and Louis A. Hirsch the music, which should be sufficient guarantee that it has a real story full of fun and melody.

The story told in "Going Up" is interesting. The hero has written a book on aviation, in one chapter of which he describes a sensational flight. The description is so vivid his friends are convinced that the author himself is an aviator.

A real, honest-to-goodness birdman shows up and the author's friends, proud of his prowess, arrange a race in the air, and it is the hero's efforts to keep from going aloft and what happens to him when he is finally forced to take the air that forms a series of thrilling and unusual situations in this very unusual musical play.

Have You a "Gone" Feeling? Fagged Out in the Morning?

Do you get any rest at night? Or are your nights filled with nightmares—in the morning you are more fatigued than when you went to bed?

Many suffer needlessly from kidney trouble. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. If they fail in this, your life is made unhappy by poisoned fluid coursing through your veins, making you irritable, stupid, quick-tempered and utterly miserable all the time.

Stop it! Your only hope is in awakening your slacker kidneys—putting them to work at purging your system of germ-laden waste.

Dodd's Kidney Pills will aid you effectively in cleaning your system of all poisons, restoring tired organs and muscles, and putting you on the road to good health. Make your life a series of bright, happy days. Each morning to be looked forward to as a time of good cheer. Open up the windows—enjoy the fresh air. Don't be a slave to ill health.

ARE YOU CONSTIPATED? Diamond Diaper Pills are mild cathartics that are healthful and pleasing. No ill after-effects.

AMUSEMENTS

this unusual musical comedy, for which Otto Harbach and James Montgomery have supplied the book and lyrics and that well known composer, Louis A. Harbach has written the music.

"The Boomerang." When David Belasco brings "The Boomerang" to the Auditorium soon thereafter, the experience the rare privilege of witnessing the greatest comedy hit of the decade, with the original Belasco theater, New York, production intact, and with a cast of Belasco excellence. Consistent with his oft-repeated promise that he never sends out a road or duplicate company.

It is a rare occasion when a so-called "Western" picture will take a firm grip upon the women. Ordinarily they show but passing interest. But we have a Universal production coming to this theater next Sunday that is warranted to captivate the woman.

ALHAMBRA. "Marked Men." It is a rare occasion when a so-called "Western" picture will take a firm grip upon the women. Ordinarily they show but passing interest. But we have a Universal production coming to this theater next Sunday that is warranted to captivate the woman.

AUDITORIUM-ALHAMBRA NOTES. Mary Pickford in "Heart of Hills" is sure the one big event in Newark today, for yesterday she drew capacity crowds to the Auditorium. She is screened both today and tomorrow and the screenings Saturday are continuous.

Stubborn Bowels Tamed. Positive in action, yet natural, comfortable, pleasant, Dr. King's New Life Pills are a boon to bowels that need assistance. They eliminate fermenting waste and put the system in normal shape.

JOYFUL EATING. Unless your food is digested without the aftermath of painful acidity, the joy is taken out of both eating and living.

NEED OF PAPER MILLS IS SEEN.
Chicago, Jan. 30.—More mills are necessary to relieve the present world shortage of news print paper and the mills cannot be built in less than two years. W. P. Hinton of Winnipeg, vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, said here today.

There is no lack of pulp wood either in Canada or the United States at present, Mr. Hinton said, but added, great inroads are being made in the forests.

As the trees are cut the source of supply recedes into the north, haulage to the mills becomes greater and expense of manufacture consequently is increased, he pointed out.

The demand from Europe is tremendous and prices are unprecedented. Mr. Hinton continued, "print paper laid down on the Atlantic seaboard for shipment a road row sells at $160 a ton."

The present crisis is turning the eyes of capitalists to the spruce forests of British Columbia and to the practically inexhaustible pulpwood supply along the Fraser river.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, Jan. 30.—Absence of selling pressure together with the fact that offerings were unusually light led to upturning prices, which ranged from steady to 2 cents higher, with May 1.35¢ to 1.36¢ and July 1.33¢ to 1.34¢, were followed by moderate further gains.

Oats hardened with corn. After opening a shade to a quarter higher, including May at 89¢, the market scored a slight further advance.

Provisions were firm, helped by the strength of grain. Most of the trade was in hard.

SOLICITOR SAYS 'ARMY' STORE MUST PAY FEE
City Solicitor H. C. Ashcraft, has rendered an opinion to Mayor H. A. Atherton that the so-called army and navy store being conducted in West Main street comes under the class of transient merchants, and is subject to the collection of a fee of $5 per day for its operation, which the mayor states he paid. The mayor states that he is taking this action believing that excessive prices are being asked for some of the goods which they are handling as private individuals and not a government controlled army and navy store.

GOVERNOR MAY VETO BILL RAISING TAX LIMIT

Columbus, Jan. 30.—There was considerable speculation today in the state capitol as to what action Governor Cox will take on the bill passed by the legislature late yesterday authorizing local taxing districts to exceed the present limitations of the Smith law for sinking fund and interest charges when the voters approve. The bill is expected to reach the governor early next week. On previous occasions Governor Cox vetoed bills proposing any change in the Smith law should the governor veto this measure. It was reported there would be little chance of the house passing it over his veto.

Women Guard Siam Palace.
Women police, an Amazon guard, for the most part old and unattractive, have long been an institution in Siam. As gatekeepers of the women's palace in Bangkok, they are assigned to a special routine. One of their duties is to follow any visitor who visits the palace and remain with him or her until their departure. They see that no mischief is done, and that no one annoys the ladies of the court. The women police are attired in a distinctive uniform but are not armed.

Felt Neglected.
Little Eva was invited out to dinner with her father and mother. Before starting, her parents made her understand that she must not speak unless spoken to. All went well at first, but after some time, no notice being taken of her, Eva began to get uneasy. Finally, the hostess, seeing that something was wrong, asked her what she would like next. "I would like to have you begin to ask me questions!" was the polite reply.

Pearls No Oyster Monopoly.
True pearls, from 1/2 to 1-16 inch in size, were found in large numbers on the mucus surfaces of a recent shipment of tripe received in England from the United States. That the occurrence was not unusual, but had merely escaped previous notice, was shown by the examination of fresh specimens taken from native cows, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The pearls were soft, of course, each imbedded in a cyst, and apparently developed just as in a bivalve.

Persian Bread.
The Persian native bread today is very little different from that used a thousand years ago. The Persian oven is built of smooth masonry in the ground. The dough is formed into thin sheets about a foot long and two feet wide and slapped against the side of the oven. It bakes in a few minutes.

roasted pots and Jack Cans.
In the Middle Ages in England many drinking pots were made with hoops so that when two or more persons drank from the same pot or tankard, no one of them should take more than his share, each hoop marking a half, a third or a fourth of the contents of the pot, according to its make.

Aztec Emeralds.
Among the Aztec treasures of Mexico were found many fine emeralds. They were exquisitely cut, and it is from this source that the magnificent emeralds now forming part of the royal collection of Spain were supposed to have come.

Hatching Trout.
A trout egg takes from 45 to 60 days to hatch, according to the temperature of the water.

Over-Worked Men

The Strenuous Life We Are Living
Uses Up Our Vital Forces Faster
Than Nature Can Replace Them.

To overdo anything is harmful and a continuation of it will wear out the strongest man. Overwork, worry, brain-tire, high living, dissipation and other such habits waste away the most vital elements of the blood, brain and nerves—then disease sets in. At first there will be a general indisposition, poor appetite, indigestion, severe headache, wakefulness and weakness in the back, the temper irritable, the spirits depressed, the memory poor and the mind weakened, ending in premature decline. Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Tablets correct this condition by building up your blood and nerve forces. A trial will convince you. Sold by Druggists at 60 cents, Special, (Stronger more Active 50 cents.)

ARE YOU A TARGET FOR INFLUENZA?

It Hits Listless, Run-down People First—Their Blood Is Thin . . .
GERMS EVERYWHERE IN EPIDEMIC.

Be Prepared—Strengthen and Build Up Your Blood With Pepto-Mangan.

If it is true that you are not feeling your best—if you have that "always-tired" feeling and no interest or enthusiasm—then you should be careful of the influenza. It is thin-blooded, anemic people that disease strikes first. The fact that you have had a few serious illnesses has nothing to do with it. Everyone gets run-down occasionally, and when they do, the blood is in no condition to fight off disease germs, because it has not enough red corpuscles. It is the red corpuscles of the blood that fight disease and save you from sickness.

You simply can't afford to take chances when influenza is striking down thousands everywhere. Fortify your blood—build it up with the pleasant tonic, Pepto-Mangan.

And should you be just recovering from influenza, you need Pepto-Mangan because your blood has exhausted its strength. Pepto-Mangan will help build you up.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. Comes in either liquid or tablet form. No difference in medicinal properties.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." Ask for it by the name and be sure the full name is on the package.—Advertisement.

FELT LIKE KNIFE WAS BEING STUCK INTO MY BACK

Sandusky Man Suffered Agonies From Lumbago, Backache, Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism.

Nothing Helped Him Until He Got Dreco, the Great Root and Herb Medicine.

"If some one had stuck a knife into my back, it would not have hurt any more than my back and side did from lumbago and rheumatism," said Mr. John Rider of Cottage A, Soldiers Home, Sandusky, O.

Only those who have this trouble realize my feelings, for you have to go through it to know what the suffering is like. I was in misery all the time and when I would lie down could hardly turn over and when I'd get in a chair I'd hate to get up on account of the pains. My sleep was badly broken and I was getting weak. My stomach was in a very weakened condition from the strong medicine I took for my rheumatism. I was taking two kinds of medicine for rheumatism when I read of Dreco and put both aside for this new medicine. Dreco proved in a few days that it was real medicine for I soon saw the effects. My pains got easy, my sleep became sound, the backache passed away and I could get up and down without pain; my stomach got better and my face began to glow. I'm now taking Dreco for I want to give it a fair chance to get me absolutely right again and I feel I can do this.

Any remedy that restores the natural functions of the human body is a health-making remedy. The use of Dreco, the great herb medicine, tends to restore the appetite, to procure natural digestion, which is followed by increased circulation and nutrition of the whole body. Lean, haggard, bloodless people begin to gain weight, strength and flesh at once from taking Dreco, as they themselves declare in signed testimonials.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Newark by Evans Cut Rate Drug Store.—Adv.
